

Troublesome Tom;

on becoming a Paine

*“He did some good,
and much harm”*

The New York Post

To coincide with the opening of the Museum’s new temporary exhibition on this famous Sandwich resident,

A free lecture in the Guildhall

On Wednesday June 5th

At 7.00 pm

By Robert E Dunay

Doors open at 6.15pm for early viewing of the exhibition and the purchase of wine and soft drinks
(all proceeds to the Museum and Archives)

Admission by (free) ticket available from the VIC

Sandwich Museum Guildhall and Archives

Who was Thomas Paine?

From his cottage in New Street, marked with a Blue Plaque, Paine travelled to both France and America to be actively engaged in the political rebirth of these nations after a revolution.

However many questions remain....

As a staymaker, were his stays for ships or corsets?

How did he escape the Guillotine in Paris?

How successful a man was he?

What happened to his body after his death?

Robert E Dunay is an American and an expert on Thomas Paine and he will explore the controversies that surround this mysterious man.